

Fact and Opinion

Place cards face down.

Choose a card from the top of the stack.

Read the sentence.

Tell if the sentence is a fact or an opinion.

Replace the card on the bottom of the stack.

Check your answer.

If you are correct, flip the penny.

Heads=move one space

Tails=move two spaces

If you are incorrect, you do not get to move.

Go to the next player.

I have added a blank page for your convenience.

Everyone loves
chocolate ice cream.

Margo is the smartest
third grade student.

Dogs are the best pets
for boys.

Charlotte's Web is the best book.

Girls are better at writing than boys.

Clark is the best
storyteller in the
whole school.

Nobody likes
cauliflower or squash.

Sponge Bob is the
funniest cartoon!

Kari is the nicest
person in our class.

Math is the easiest
subject.

I am in third grade.

I did my homework
last night.

Shelly has blue eyes.

We have twenty
students in our class.

Valentine's Day is on February 14.

Some people put up
trees for Christmas.

You can listen to music on a radio.

Snow can melt.

There are nine planets.

Saturday and Sunday
are weekends.

ANSWER KEY

Everyone loves
chocolate ice cream.
(opinion)

Margo is the smartest
third grade student.
(opinion)

Dogs are the best pets
for boys.
(opinion)

Charlotte's Web is the best book.
(opinion)

Girls are better at writing than boys.
(opinion)

Clark is the best
storyteller in the
whole school.
(opinion)

Nobody likes
cauliflower or squash.
(opinion)

Sponge Bob is the
funniest cartoon!
(opinion)

Kari is the nicest
person in our class.
(opinion)

Math is the easiest
subject.
(opinion)

ANSWER KEY

I am in third grade.
(fact)

I did my homework
last night.
(fact)

Shelly has blue eyes.
(fact)

We have twenty
students in our class.
(fact)

Valentine's Day is on February 14.
(fact)

Some people put up
trees for Christmas.
(fact)

You can listen to music on a radio.
(fact)

Snow can melt.
(fact)

There are nine planets.
(fact)

Saturday and Sunday
are weekends.
(fact)

